BUSINESS BOWLERS
MAKE GOOD SCORE
AFTER REST

Play Dead Heat With Independents—Country Club Defeats Zozayas.

Rested from the Christmas rush and fresh from the New Year's holiday and the Sunday which followed, the Business Men played the Independents a dead heat last night in the Y. M. C. A. bowling tournament.

With wrists stiff from lack of practice during the holiday rush, the Business Men fell down in the first game, got up and won the second game, lost the third and tied the Independents by making the high total score for the match. This gave each team two points for the match and left the decision to the crowd.

Palma of the Business Men made the high game with 221 and Abbott of the Independents rolled 549 for a high total score. The results were:

JUAREZ TRACK IN SPLENDID CONDITION;
RECORD BREAKING TIME IS EXPECTED

It is a poor snow that snows in vain. The snowstorm that came a week ahead of Christmas and put a temporary crimp in the racing game across the river, proved a valuable blessing in disguise. From a soft, dusty, heavy going track, the Juarez race course has developed into a fast speedway as a result of the thorough soaking it received from the melting snow and subsequent rains. The mile and an eighth track is now as hard as a motor speedway and the only thing the racing secretary has to fear is that the adobe soil in its composition will pack too hard and make the running hard on the horses' feet.

Track records were smashed last week with daily regularity. The five-eighths was run Sunday in 6:59.3-5, which is the best time for the Juarez track. This time was made by Pajaro, and an effort will be made to lower it this record. Friday Enfield went five furlongs in 1:30.1-5. Thursday Executive did six furlongs in 1:12.4-5, and Lady Esther did the mile in 1:29.8-5. None of these records are better than other track records, but for a new track and one that was in such poor condition at the start, the time that was made last week is considered very good.

The shoots are largely responsible for the fast time that is being made, as they are proving unusually fast and the positions of the three are such that the least possible hindrance is offered the horses on the turns. The mile shoot is very fast and the horses come out of this at a speed that gives them the jump.

NO ORAL BETTING AT SANTA ANITA

Track on Baldwin's California Ranch Will Not Open This Year.

Santa Anita, the running race course on the late "Lucky" Baldwin's ranch in California near Los Angeles, will not open again. George Rose, who is financially interested in the Santa Anita track and who is one of the bookmakers across the river, made this statement some time ago.

It was corroborated Monday in Los Angeles by Thomas J. Williams, president of the California Jockey Club, who telegraphed friends in Los Angeles that he did not think there was any chance for racing at Santa Anita this year.

It has been reported several times that Santa Anita would open under the oral betting system now being tried at Oakland. This Rose denied, saying that he did not think that a meeting under such conditions would be successful.

James Butler and Alberto Terrazas, two of the heavy stockholders in the Juarez track are contemplating having a string of fast sprinters at the track next year. Both are enthusiastic horsemen and will get together a fast stable during the summer. Mr. Butler owns a number of trotters, which he races for the fun of the game. Woodford Clay, another prominent horseowner, is expected to ship here next year.

Garner continues to lead the jockeys with the highest percentage of winning mounts. Having ridden 32 mounts during the meeting little Guy has put over 17 winners, 16 seconds and 14 thirds. Murray refuses to resign as Philadelphia manager.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 4.—William Murray, manager of the Philadelphia National league club by right of conquest, refuses to surrender his contract to the new managers of the club. Murray's contract has two more years to run and Horace Fogal, the new president of the organization, has been unable to get Murray to give up the contract.

The old manager wants $7500 a year for two years, the terms his contract calls for and also the payment of $1500 due him from last year, he says. A meeting was held Monday between Fogal and Murray, but nothing definite was decided upon. Fogal offered Murray $5000 to resign without litigation, which Murray promptly refused. Another meeting is being held today between the obstinate manager and the new president.

"KHAKI KID" STARTS ON LONG HIKE

Charles Hohn Leaves El Paso for New York on Walking Wager.

Charles Hohn, the cross the continent pedestrian, who calls himself the "Khaki Kid," left the Sheldon hotel this morning for the east on his long walk from San Francisco to New York. Hohn, who says he is making the walk on a wager with the Philadelphia Athletic club, expects to cover the entire distance in 250 days and win the wager by arriving in New York on November 1. He left San Francisco on November 1, and arrived in El Paso Sunday evening.

He is selling pictures of himself to pay expenses while en route, and is also keeping a notebook of his experiences from which he says he expects to write a book, after he reaches the eastern end of his hike. He carries a knapsack weighing 20 pounds, a canteen holding three pints of water and a heavy ax handle which serves the double purpose of a cane and a club for protecting himself against the knights of the road.

Hohn says his home is in Philadelphia where he attended one of the Philadelphia high schools for three years. He says he is going to take a "machinist" course in Pennsylvania university after he completes his trip.
